

Please do nothing to lessen the restrictions for telemarketers. If anything, add all surveys to this list of restrictions.

I have been very relieved by the Indiana opt-out and would be very disapointed to have the restrictions eased in any way.

There is an invalid in this household who becomes very confused and distressed if he happens to answer a telemarketing call when his caretaker is away.